1

Entrance via Schweizerhof Botschafterstiege
(ground floor)

2

Registration
Our entry and registration area will be located on the ground floor.

3

Zeremonienaal
In the Habsburg Throne Room Napoleon asked Marie Louise for her hand in marriage. 26 chandeliers of crystal glass illuminate our keynotes and sessions.

4

Geheime Ratstube
Emperor Franz Joseph I used to open the receptions of the Austro-Hungarian delegation in this room. We are going to hold larger symposia sessions and workshops here.

5

Schatzkammersaal
(ground floor)
Larger symposia sessions will be held in this room.

6

Künstlerzimmer
Together with the Radetzky-Appartements, this salon offers a beautiful backdrop for smaller meetings.

7

Radetzky Apartment I
Named after the famous Austrian Field Marshall, this space unlocks the charm of the Hofburg.

8

Radetzky Apartment II
The Radetzky rooms are perfect for smaller meetings.

9

Radetzky Apartment III

10

Maria Theresien APP I Named after Austria's most famous regent, this historic room will be available for our symposia sessions.

11

Antekammer
In combination with other rooms, the Antekammer will be one of our networking spaces.

12

Marmorsaal
In combination with other rooms, the Marmorsaal will be one of our networking spaces.

13

The Wintergarten
features an extraordinarily view of the opulent buildings along the Wiener Ringstrasse. (Networking & Breaks)

14

The Rittersaal
served as the baptismal hall for Empress Maria Theresa when she was christened here in 1717. (Networking)

15

Entree-Zimmer
The room serves as childcare facility during the conference.
